

Jesus Corrects the Disciples' View of Children (Luke 18:15-17)

¹⁵ Then they also brought infants to Him that He might touch them; but when the disciples saw it, they rebuked them. ¹⁶ But Jesus called them to Him and said, "Let the little children come to Me, and do not forbid them; for of such is the kingdom of God. ¹⁷ "Assuredly, I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will by no means enter it."

KEY TAKEAWAYS:

1. Ministry to Children Is _____ to Christianity

- Children are not a distraction to ministry; they are ministry.
- Belief is possible – even likely – for children
- (Dangers: predators)

2. Parental _____ for Their Own Children Is Implied

- This should not be used as an argument against discipline or courtesy.
- This should not be used to discard the responsibility of parents (they brought their children, they didn't send them).
- There is a sense of responsibility and control by the parents, even in this passage.

3. Salvation Is _____

- “Cannot enter the kingdom of God” is our default state. It is what and where we are unless a condition is met.
- John 3:3 Jesus answered and said to him, "Most assuredly, I say to you, unless one is born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

4. Salvation Is _____

- Salvation is as simple as child-like belief in what God has promised (Rom 4:5; John 3:16,18,36; Acts 16:30-31)
- This passage rejects the concept of “saving faith” (versus faith that does not save). There is nothing complicated about a child believing what he/she is told.
- “Easy-believism” is hard to believe, based upon such a passage, if it is defined as anything more than simple belief in what God has promised.
