

Genesis Quiz 3:1-13

- 1. What is the possible significance of the serpent going to the woman rather than the man? (or going to both as a couple) (v.1)
- 2. As a reminder, to whom was the command regarding the tree directly given? (2:16-17)
- 3. When does the Bible indicate when God told Eve of the fruit-eating prohibition?
- 4. On what basis/authority did the woman make her decision to eat the fruit?
- 5. What does v. 13 and 1 Tim 2:14 clarify about the woman's choice?
- 6. How might this relate to the person God commanded regarding fruit-eating?
- 7. What did the woman do once she ate of the fruit?
- 8. Was there any discussion regarding the fruit before Adam ate of it?
- 9. At what point were the eyes of "them" open? (When does "then" refer to?)
- 10. What was the immediate evidence of their eyes being opened?
- 11. What was their first response to their plight?
- 12. How did disobedience change the relationship of the couple to God?
- 13. Whom did God address when the man and woman were not present?
- 14. Who responded to the question?
- 15. Instead of responding, "Here I am," how did Adam respond?
- 16. How did disobedience change the relationship of the couple to each other?